Teaching Artist- Instructor

Crystal Neal's life has been a testament to her unwavering passion for performance, evident from her earliest days.

With a deep-seated desire to entertain and express herself, she pursued a formal education in Dramatic Arts, complemented by a minor in music focusing on vocal mastery. This educational journey not only refined her skills but also nurtured her innate talents in theater, music, and the performing arts.

Transitioning into the realm of education, Crystal found her true calling, dedicating over a decade to shaping the minds of future generations. Her gift for the dramatic arts has taken her across continents, including a stint teaching in Asia, where she bridged cultural divides through the universal language of performance.

Currently, as a mentor and educator at Dacula Middle School, Crystal continues to inspire and empower young performers, fostering creativity and imagination in her students while leaving an indelible mark on the world of education and the arts.
