

Amber Evert

Teaching Artist-Instructor

Amber Evert teaches dance and theatre throughout Gwinnett County. She caught the theatre bug in middle school, when she saw her school's production of Seussical. She joined drama club for the rest of her academic career, and went on to major in Theatre at Belhaven University. During her time at Belhaven, she was given the opportunity to study storytelling from various different arts perspectives, seeing it applied through creative writing, visual art, dance and of course acting. She was assistant stage manager for two productions, The Bear by Anton Chekhov and Pride and Prejudice. She also studied literary adaptation for theatre, and dance improvisation. She graduated from Belhaven with a B.A. in Theatre and English.

She has choreographed and taught dance for k-12 students in the Atlanta area. She began as an assistant dance instructor, helping with k-12 ballet and musical theatre dance classes. As an assistant instructor, she also choreographed two pieces for Annie Jr. Other productions she has choreographed include Alice in Wonderland, Peter Pan and You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. Amber Evert encourages logical thinking in acting at every age, along with discovering and sharing joy through the collaborative creative process.
